

Argus Black Sea and Caspian Key Terminals and Logistics Conference

May 14-15 | Batumi, Georgia

Argus Black Sea and Caspian Key Terminals and Logistics Conference

The Conference will offer an exclusive overview of the key terminals and logistics dynamics in the strategically vital Black Sea and Caspian region.

Its unique value lies in combining high-level market analysis of oil, dry bulk, and container flows with optional technical site visits to the key Georgian sea ports and terminals.

Conference Focus:

- Dry Bulk Logistics
- Oil Products and Crude Transshipment
- Containers and Multimodal Cargos
- Logistics and Infrastructure (tariffs, fitting, repair, optimization solutions, new projects)

Conference Venue

Hilton Batumi

The Hilton Batumi is a luxury hotel located in the Black Sea resort city of Batumi, Georgia, featuring 247 rooms and suites. It is noted as a top choice for business travelers in the area. The hotel offers a comfortable and convenient base for exploring the city, which is known for its vibrant tourism, unique architecture, and beautiful coastline.

An aerial photograph of a port terminal. In the foreground, there are several large industrial buildings with white roofs and blue structural elements. A network of tracks and railcars is visible. In the middle ground, a long pier extends into a body of water, with more industrial buildings and cranes along its length. The background shows a city skyline with several modern skyscrapers, including a distinctive tower with a circular pattern. A large Ferris wheel is also visible in the distance.
