Pre-conference workshop: RFS and RINs – navigating changing policies and price impacts

10:00 – 16:00

An in-depth workshop providing an RFS program update and outlook as well as addressing the trends in RINs pricing and expectations for the future.

Attendees will gain insight into:

- The basics on the RINs market and price trends
- RFS risk factors and forecasting policy impacts on biofuels credits
- What is changing under the federal RFS program?
- How will state-level programs interact with federal initiatives?
- Product costs and RINs price pass-through
- Buyer practices in an unhedged market
- What trends have we seen in the RINs pricing and what might we expect in the future?
